Wish app not showing order history

What should I do? There is no way to contact someone wish, just a robot. I can't cancel my order because it's not in my order history... Should I just wait and see if he's coming? Should I contact my bank? Page 2 6 comments I had to reset my phone and install the preference app again, I have items ordered some time ago but can not follow the items because there is no history, I signed up with email address and Facebook as well. I have emails about my orders, but when I open them, I get an error message 404, what it is, my bank account shows that I paid for the goods, but just can not get any information, the program assistance feature does not help at all. Wish.com is an e-commerce platform program that offers buyers amazing prices for goods sold worldwide. Founded in 2010 by Peter Szulczewski and Danny Zhang, the platform is similar to eBay and Amazon. This allows sellers to list their products and sell directly to consumers, bypassing the middle man known as the store. Wish.com is one of the main marketplaces for goods from China sold worldwide. Wish is a platform for sellers optimized to sell directly to buyers and they only handle payments. Wish.com started out as a website for people to create lists of what they wanted for weddings or other events. The company itself contacted the sellers and traders of these products and started to develop a sales programme for these goods. Wish takes a share of each sale as a host site for traders. Wish.com contacted Amazon and Alibaba to sell them their platform, but she rejected that offer ever. Wish is now a direct competitor to established marketplaces. The company's headquarters are officially located in San Francisco, USA, but Wish has different offices around the world. Wish is the fastest growing program with more than 800 employees who work in more than 130 countries. Where does Wish come from? Wish.com serves consumers all over the world from China. It's like Amazon and eBay online stores. It's easy to work for Wish sellers. All they need to do is add a product locally, buyers search for it directly and can easily handle payments from sellers and sellers. Every day, many sellers add products with detailed Wish.com that you can see in a visualized format. How long does sending from Wish take? Wish delivery time depends on the final destination.
